A CHANGE IN THE ONLINE ADDRESS FOR FLUORIDE

Some difficulties have been experienced in recent months in the People's Republic of China in accessing Fluoride at www.fluorideresearch.org. To try to overcome this problem the website has been changed to www.fluorideresearch.online. The issues for the past few years on the website have been changed to the new address and over time the rest will also be changed. However, I am happy to make the change for any particular issue on request, E-mail: spittle727@gmail.com. The old address of www.fluorideresearch.org will continue to work outside of the People's Republic of China.

Bruce Spittle, Editor-in-Chief, Fluoride
